The allure of the Sealine T50 isn't simply confined to the luxurious full beam master cabin, with en suite. Or to the thoughtful design of the two guest cabins. Or even to the extravagance of a cockpit that expands at the touch of a button. The attraction goes deeper. Much deeper. To a state of the art T50 hull designed to reduce water resistance and increase propeller efficiency, giving you excellent fuel economy, a smooth, stable ride and exhilarating performance. The only drawback? Your journey could be over all too quickly.
